High school was an adventure for the class of 2009. Although we all attended the same school, each one of us has come out of it with something different. At Shrewsbury High School, we have all led unique lives, whether it was being part of the track team, jazz band, or yearbook staff. None of us participated in quite the same selection of classes and after school activities. One day we will all look back, and have different memories of the good old days.

All of the unique, individual lives at Shrewsbury High School make up the whole class of 2009. Each of us plays a different role in the class but without one another, the high school experience just would not be the same! When we meet again there will be a multitude of stories to share and everyone will have their own unique view points.

We all follow a different path in life, each with a different perspective of the world around us.

SPIRIT WEEK

At the Shrewsbury High School, Spirit Week is a huge event during the week of Columbus Day. This year, it went from Tuesday, October 14th to Friday October 17th. Each day has a different theme, ending with Field Day on Friday. Tuesday was 80's day, Wednesday was Super Hero Day and Thursday was Blue and Gold day. The students, faculty and staff are all very spirited. Field Day is always a very festive event. Seniors always make a grand entrance into the Field House once all of the underclassmen are seated. This year some seniors entered by driving into the gymnasium with a van, while others came pouring in the other doorways into the Field House. Some of the events of the day included, three legged races, cheerleading routines, and tug-o-war competitions between grades and between advisors and class officers.

MEMORY PROJECT

Mrs. Taborda organized the Memory Project this year at Shrewsbury High. Students from her Studio I class and the National Art Honor Society students with Mrs. LeBlanc received photos of orphans from Ecuador. They created a portrait and wrote a letter to each child. SHS & SHS

Our mission is to have students at Shrewsbury High School help other students. We have created a tutor schedule for each subject and set up an email account for tutees to request personal tutors. Students usually go to the tutoring center (math lab) during their studies. These students can be used for help in all core subjects. This club is based on the theory that students can learn better from other students who have mastered a certain field of knowledge.

Dreams – By Langston Hughes

Hold fast to your dreams

Life is a broken wing

Hold fast your dreams

you've made it!

To My Son
Ashton Seto

Somedays, more than other days,
my memory will travel back
to when you were a little boy
Somehow, the world was simpler then, — at least I thought it was.
The world has changed so much since you were a little boy,
and I was young.
I know it is not easy to be a man in this changing world.
I am not sure it ever was easy to be a man or a parent.

So my dear son, this is what I hope and wish for you —
the ability to strive
for your dreams —
never to lose hope or faith
in yourself or the world —
keep all things in perspective —
always be honest and fair
with yourself and others.

Remember — everything changes with time
nothing stays the same forever.
Every moment of life is so very precious, even the gray days
one never knows the outcome, until we finish the job.
So, trust and have faith in God and in yourself.

Love,
Mom & Dad

First of all, this summer is probably going to be

In the fall, go to college and love it, seriously,
you're gonna be great, so don't be nervous, be yourself.
Oh, and class is important too, so keep that in mind.
We may not have always seen eye to eye, but

It seems like only yesterday you were my beautiful little girl never wanting to leave my side. Now my beautiful little girl is graduating from high school. You have turned out to be a kind and thoughtful person, putting others needs in front of your own. I could not be more proud of you or love you any more than I do and always will. Love you sweetie!

Mommy

Congrats Sis, Oh how you have taken care of me all these years. I remember how I had trouble walking and you would drag me on my butt around the hallway till my rear was beet red. Therefore speeding up my walking. Then, there was the time you taught me about sibling rivalry by excluding me from the games you and Curtis played together. It wasn't until Curtis left for college that you realized I could be a lot of fun. Really Sis, I love you and I know you're always there for me.

Megan,

We were so blessed the day you were born, and the time shared with you has flown by way too fast. You are all we could have ever hoped for in a daughter. You have grown into a beautiful, intelligent, and fun loving young lady, and we're so very proud of the caring person you have become. We love you "too much" and are going to miss you terribly as you begin your exciting journey in college.

We're excited for you and are confident that you'll make good choices. Continue to believe in yourself as much as we believe in you. We know without a doubt that you'll "bloom where you're planted" no matter what you choose to do in the future. Pursue your dreams baby and never give up!

We wish you with very tear filled eyes much success, happiness and love!

You were six months old and full of fun, with a blink of our eye, you suddenly were one.
There were so many things we were going to do, but we turned our heads and you turned two.
At two, you were very dependent on us, but independence took over when you turned three.
Four was the year we thought you really strived, but then you kept right on going when you turned five.
Then you were ready for books and rules that was the year you went off to school.
The big day came, you were anxious to go. We walked to the bus, going oh so slow.
As you climbed aboard and waved goodbye, we felt a lump in our throats and tears in our eyes.
Time goes so fast and it's hard to believe, that the years have passed and it will be time for you to leave.
Soon you'll be wearing your cap and gown, and then you'll drive off for the next adventure in another town.
It's all worked out and we just wanted you to know, that we're so proud and that we love you so.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Nicole, and Allison

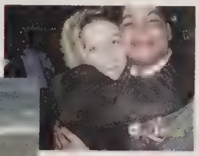
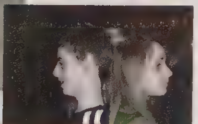
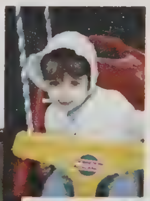
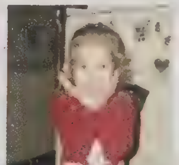
DeAnna ~ You have given us SO much joy and pride! You are compassionate, kind, strong, and determined, and you have a wonderful sense of humor – all special qualities that will help to keep your "du jours" and your dreams alive. We wish you a future filled with as much happiness as you have given to us. We love you with all our hearts.
~ Mom and Daddy

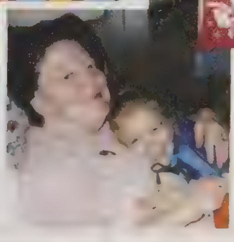
Dear DeAnna,
I am so proud that you have made it to the end high school! It only gets better from here! I just can't believe it went by so fast. I'm still getting used to the fact that you're in high school! No matter where you go or what you do, you will successful. Just remember to always keep a positive outlook on everything, and you will soar. I will miss you when you're off to school next year, but I am just excited for you to be starting a brand new fabulous chapter of your life! I love you so much, you're the best little sis out there and we will continue to have many good times. GOOD LUCK! Love, Elyse











Doost --
You have finally made it to the end! It was a long road, and I am so proud of how much you have grown as a person over the past four years! You have so much kindness and spirit in you, something I really admire. You are hardworking, but you still know how to have a lot of fun...and those two traits are going to take you very very far, little sis! I feel so lucky to have experienced so much with you thus far in our journey through life together: playing in the sprinkler when we were little, using the Easy Bake Oven during Christmas Vacations, going to Old Orchard Beach and the rides, playing Cranium and Loaded Questions (how hip are YOU?), you going to every concert I was ever in (haha), and just hanging out and watching movies. Get excited for your next journey into college, trust me: it's amazing! And don't worry, I'll be there every step of the way! I love you soooo much.

Dear Kate,

Learn from the past, and plan for the future, but always remember to savor the present. This is your time to seize the moment and make the most of the opportunities in front of you!

Temper the balance between seriousness and silliness as both are key ingredients in the seesaw of life. Work and play with enthusiasm and passion. These qualities will be the bridge to your success--however you choose to define it.

Always be yourself as you have been given many gifts and graces that make you unique and special. Remember your family and friends, for they will ultimately be your balance as you leap through the moments of life.

why Should you be glad to have me in your class

The reason you should be glad to have me in your class is because I go with the flow. I'm laid back. I probably won't be got in your face kind of person. So I believe that if your respectful to me I will be respectful to you. I'm smart funny and loud at times so I'll apologize in advance if you find me Obnoxious my intent is not to be that way I also try to make it on time every day And in conclusion I'll Answer the little question about You should be glad to have me because I'll add a little spice to your class keeping things fun for everyone. Oh and yes my hair is pretty cool most days and I have pretty neat Shoes!

Congratulations, Becca!
We are so proud of you. May you reach for the stars and soar beyond your wildest dreams.
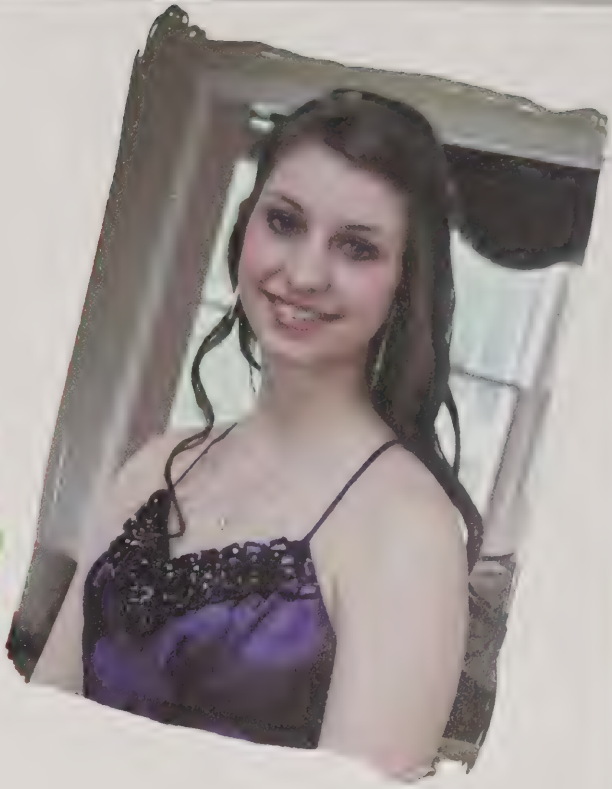
We love you forever!
Mom, Dad and Eric



May God bless and keep you always,
May your wishes all come true,
May you always do for others
And let others do for you.
May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung,
May you stay forever young.

May you grow up to be righteous,
May you grow up to be true,
May you always know the truth
And see the lights surrounding you.
May you always be courageous,
Stand upright and be strong,
May you stay forever young.

May your hands always be busy,
May your feet always be swift,
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift.
May your heart always be joyful,
May your song always be sung,
May you stay forever young.
